Check Out These Awesome November Sights!

By Carolyn Brenneman

This November, Senior News thinks it will be fabulous to display some of the artful and creative works of Georgia's younger generation, which, of course, are the grandchildren and great grandchildren of many Georgia residents. My senior friends and I found these displays so refreshing, creative and quite brilliant that we wanted to share with everyone! These exhibits are known as scarecrows, and are shown during the October and November months. The "scarecrows" which are on display in Alpharetta (northern Georgia) showcase the creative talents of children from pre-school age of 4- to 5-year-olds, to grade school children in 1st to 5th grades.

Super Colorful!

Blue eyed guy!

These children, as are all children, are divergent thinkers capable of using their creative minds to produce many creative ideas – freely, generously – and they can express their feelings through the artful projects. These lit-tle ones are masters at manipulating objects physically, and engaging all their senses in their creative projects. So, let's all enjoy the photos of our great masters.

Our "crows" are all around the downtown area of Alpharetta, a sub-urb of northern Atlanta, and are on display for the next several weeks. There are over 150 handmade and crafted displays from the children of many of the local schools. And yes, there are a few displays from some of Atlanta's non-profit organizations and adjoining neighborhoods.

So, take a look at the "crows" made from straw, cloth, sewing threads, yarns, old clothes, wigs, fruits, pumpkins, colorful buttons, ribbons, popsicle or wooden craft sticks, paper plates, Styrofoam balls, corks, milk cartons, feathers, beads, googly eyes, paper bags, feathers, magnets, paints, play dough, clothespins, egg cartons, and many other items. Yes, let's all admire and delight in viewing such fascinating crows from our youngest generation!

Special to Senior News Georgia

The story goes that Ebenezer Scrooge had a night of "ghostly" visitations the evening before Christmas Day. It supposedly changed his mind about what Christmas really meant and on Christmas Day he visited the home of his nephew and family. It was a wonderful celebration as they dined on Christmas dinner and shared memories of days gone by. It truly seemed that Ebenezer had changed his mind, but had his heart been changed?

Our setting is the day after Christmas and we will soon see if that night of "ghostly" visitations had done the trick or if it is going to take another night of sleeplessness for our Mr. Scrooge and a visitation by another ghost – The Holy Ghost.
