

THIS WEEK

at the Morris

Thursday 4/3

4:00–5:00 p.m.

CREATE WITH ME! FABERGÉ FUN. Let's get eggstravagant! Take your egg decorating to another level when you learn about the Russian art of making Fabergé eggs. Afterwards, bejewel your own wooden egg. Members, FREE; nonmembers, $5. For kids, toddler to tween. Advance registration required. Register HERE.

Friday 4/4

Noon.

FILMS ON FRIDAY: TO CATCH A THIEF (1955). Directed by Alfred Hitchcock and starring Cary Grant and Grace Kelly, this is the story of a retired cat burglar who becomes a suspect when robberies are committed in his signature style. He begins his own surveillance to catch the thief. FREE.

Monday 4/7 – Sunday 4/13

We are open the Monday of Masters Week! Come visit, tour, and explore the Morris Museum of Art.

*Our parking lot is slated to be repaired that week. Please park in the adjacent lot on Grasshopper Lane or one of the nearby parking decks on Reynolds Street or Grasshopper Lane.

Save These Dates!

Thursday 4/17

6:00 p.m.

FILM PREMIERE: TO HAVE A NAME WORTH OWNING. This forty-minute documentary focuses on the life and work of poet, painter, and inventor James M. Legaré (1823–1859), who spent his adult life in Aiken and married Anne Andrews from Augusta. Dr. Tom Mack will introduce the film, and George Wingard, the film's producer and director, will answer questions following the screening. A reception follows. FREE.

Sunday 4/27

2:00–4:00 p.m.

ARTRAGEOUS! FAMILY SUNDAY: AUTHORS IN APRIL. Local authors Jai C. West and Melissa Marie Burch visit the Morris to share their respective children's books, The Land and the Sea and Baby Makes Three and The Three Bears, Blondie, and Their Spaghetti. Enjoy story time, then create your own book cover inspired by their tales. FREE.

---

1 Tenth St. | Augusta, GA 30901 | 706-724-7501 | www.themorris.org

MORRIS
MUSEUM of ART

