

THIS WEEK

at the Morris

Thursday 10/2

4:00–5:00 p.m.

CREATE WITH ME! SUGAR SKULL SWEETNESS. Embrace the sweetness of the spooky season when you paint a ceramic sugar skull piggy bank inspired by the traditions of el Día de los Muertos—an important holiday in Mexican culture. Members, free; nonmembers, $5. For kids, toddler to tween. Advance registration required. Register online by button at bottom, or call 706-828-3867.

Thursday 10/2

6:00 p.m.

ARTIST TALK AND RECEPTION WITH DRAKE WHITE. The photographer will speak about his work in the current exhibition Artist(s) as Muse: Photographs by Drake White. The lecture is followed by a reception in the galleries. FREE.

Friday 10/3

Noon.

FILMS ON FRIDAY: FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT (1940). Starring Joel McCrea, Laraine Day, Herbert Marshall, and George Sanders, this thriller is directed by Alfred Hitchcock. A young American reporter tries to expose enemy agents in London on the eve of World War II. FREE.

Sunday 10/5

6:00 p.m.

MUSIC AT THE MORRIS: CHRIS NDETI. Enjoy the dynamic musical talent of this singer-songwriter, one of the CSRA's most popular performers. FREE. Funded by the Cleon W. Mauldin Foundation.

Save The Date!

Save The Date!

Thursday 10/16

6:00–8:00 p.m.

THE ART OF FINE LIVING: AN EVENING WITH PHOTOGRAPHER NICK MELE.

Hear this lifestyle, fashion, and fine art photographer discuss his career, photographic process, and influences. Afterwards, meet the artist and have him sign his beautiful coffee-table books, A Newport Summer and Palm Beach Living. Members, $50; nonmembers, $75. Preorder books online.

1 Tenth Street, Augusta, GA 30901 • 706-724-7501 • www.themorris.org

MORRIS
MUSEUM of ART

